

Song Parody Contest: Entry Details

Think you have what it takes to create the ultimate food waste parody? Show off your creativity and help spread the word about reducing wasted food! Enter the Song Parody Contest for a chance to win.

How to Enter

Step 1: Create Your Parody

Write and perform a parody song or video related to reducing food waste. Your parody can focus on themes such as:

- Understanding date labels
- Freezing and storing food properly (To refrigerate or not refrigerate)
- Meal planning and portioning
- Creative ways to use leftovers
- Any other clever food-saving tips or hacks!
- The value of food

Step 2: Submit Your Entry

- Post your parody on your social media accounts (Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, etc.).
- Tag @FoodWastePreventionWeek and use the hashtag #FWPWPParodyContest #FWPW so we can find and feature your entry.
- Include a caption explaining your parody and how it promotes food waste prevention.

Deadline

- Submit your parody during Food Waste Prevention Week, April 7–13, 2025.
 - All entries must be submitted by Monday, April 14, 2025.
-

Judging Criteria : The Food Waste Prevention Week (FWPW) team will evaluate entries based on:

1. Creativity and originality
 2. Relevance to food waste prevention
 3. Entertainment value
 4. Length: Approximately 30 seconds, with at least two verses and refrains which uses one of the themes to save food.
-

Winner Announcement

- The winner will be announced on May 1, 2025, via Instagram.
-

Prizes

- Prize: $100 Amazon gift card/ $100 and a feature on FWPW's official channels!
-

Important Notes

- All parody submissions must be original and appropriate for all audiences.
- By entering, you grant FWPW permission to share your parody on social media and other promotional platforms.

Let's make food waste prevention fun and entertaining—start creating your parody today! 🎤🎥

Example Parodies for Inspiration:

- All About No Waste (a parody of All About That Bass by Meghan Trainor)
- Eat It by "Weird Al" Yankovic

Example Parody:

All About No Waste \(Meghan Trainor - All About That Bass Parody\)

"Weird Al" Yankovic - Eat It \(Official 4K Video\)